

SPRING 2019

At BDI, we design furniture that is much more than simply beautiful. We think about how people will interact with our designs, and how just a single piece of furniture can improve the quality of everyday life. Whether organizing a household of treasures, settling in for a long workday, or setting up the coolest home theater system on the block, our designs strive to organize, simplify and inspire.

As we present our Spring 2019 collection, we want to express sincere thanks to our retailers, design partners, and all those who help us tell the BDI story.

We thank you for your support of innovative and original design.
